

BALLIOL COLLEGE
OXFORD

THE FOLEY-BEJAR SCHOLARSHIP

The College seeks to elect a Foley-Béjar Scholar. Candidates will have an offer of admission to Oxford University and a place at Balliol College to read for a higher degree commencing in the academic year 2015-2016. The Scholarship is open only to candidates who were born in or who have a parent born in Mexico, Spain, or the Republic of Ireland, or who have a strong connection with Northern Ireland. There are no special restrictions as to the subject or degree for which the Scholar reads.

The Scholarship may be awarded in conjunction with a University Clarendon Fund Award, or may be offered separately. When awarded jointly with the Clarendon Fund, the Scholarship covers all University and College fees and a grant for living expenses. If the Scholarship is awarded alone, its value will be up to £12,000 per annum for the duration of the Scholar's course, subject to satisfactory academic progress being made.

Applicants must apply to the University of Oxford for admission to a higher degree by the University's second deadline in January

Candidates who wish to be considered on the basis of a parent's nationality or because they have a strong link to Northern Ireland must inform the Balliol College Admissions Office of this as soon as they learn they have an offer of a place from Oxford University.
