THE SIR JOHN KEEGAN SCHOLARSHIP

The College seeks to elect a Sir John Keegan Scholar. Candidates will have an offer of admission to the University of Oxford and a place at Balliol College to read for a higher degree commencing in the academic year 2018/19. The Scholarship is open only to candidates reading for a degree in History, with a preference for work in the tradition of military history pioneered by Sir John Keegan.

The Scholarship may be offered in conjunction with a UK Research Council award, or it may be awarded separately. When awarded jointly with the UK Research Council, the Scholarship covers all University and College fees, and a grant for living expenses. If the Scholarship is awarded alone, its value will be at the rate of the Graduate College Fee (£3,112 for 2018/19).

This award is made for the full duration of the period of fee liability for the agreed course, subject to satisfactory academic progress being made, and is tenable only at Balliol College.

Applicants must apply to the University of Oxford for admission to a higher degree by the University's second deadline in January. No separate application is required to be considered for this award.
