The College seeks to elect one Snell Scholar and one Snell Exhibitioner. Candidates will have an offer of admission to Oxford University and a place at Balliol College to read for a higher degree commencing in the academic year 2017-18, having already completed a degree at the University of Glasgow. Applications are invited from good Honours graduates of the University of Glasgow, or from students in their final Honours year at the University of Glasgow who hope to graduate with a first or good upper second class degree.

The Scholarship may be offered in conjunction with a UK Research Council award, or it may be awarded separately. When awarded jointly with the UK Research Council, the Scholarship covers all University and College fees, and a grant for living expenses. If the Scholarship is awarded alone, its value will be up to UK Research Council maintenance rates for the duration of the Scholar's course, subject to satisfactory academic progress being made.

The Exhibition may be offered in conjunction with a UK Research Council award, or it may be awarded separately. When awarded jointly with the UK Research Council, the Exhibition covers all University and College fees, and a grant for living expenses. If the Exhibition is awarded alone, its value will be at the rate of the Graduate College Fee (£3,021 for 2017/18), for the duration of the Scholar’s course, subject to satisfactory academic progress being made.

Further information and details of how to apply for the awards are available from the Glasgow University Senate Office at http://www.gla.ac.uk/services/senateoffice/prizesandscholarships/.

Applicants must apply to the University of Oxford for admission to a higher degree by the University's second deadline in January, and must notify Balliol's Admissions Office of their eligibility for this award in order to be considered.

Only graduates of the University of Glasgow are eligible.
