THE SNELL SCHOLARSHIP
THE SNELL EXHIBITION

The College seeks to elect one Snell Exhibitioner. Candidates will have an offer of admission to Oxford University and a place at Balliol College to read for a higher degree commencing in the academic year 2019/20, having already completed a degree at the University of Glasgow. Applications are invited from good Honours graduates of the University of Glasgow, or from students in their final Honours year at the University of Glasgow who hope to graduate with a first or good upper second class degree. The awards are open only to candidates in the Mathematical, Physical and Life Sciences, Social Sciences and Medical Sciences Divisions.

The Scholarship may be offered in conjunction with a UK Research Council award, or it may be awarded separately. If the Scholarship is awarded alone, its value will be up to UK Research Council maintenance rates for the duration of the Scholar’s course, subject to satisfactory academic progress being made.

The Exhibition may be offered in conjunction with a UK Research Council award, or it may be awarded separately. If the Exhibition is awarded alone, its value will be £3,205.

This award is made for the full duration of the period of fee liability for the agreed course, subject to satisfactory academic progress being made, and is tenable only at Balliol College.

Applicants must apply to the University of Oxford for admission to a higher degree by the University’s second deadline in January. No separate application is required to be considered for this award.

Tutor for Graduate Admissions graduate@balliol.ox.ac.uk

September 2018