Student Barometer Survey 2016: Balliol undergraduates

Here are some of the comments Balliol students gave anonymously in the Student Barometer Survey 2016. The Barometer surveys full-time undergraduate, postgraduate taught and postgraduate research students. Administered by an external company, i-graduate, the survey covers the whole student experience including application, teaching and pastoral support, and contains questions specific to both colleges and departments.

'Don't let money hold you back. There is lots of financial support to be found.'

Balliol undergraduate, BA Biological Sciences

'Absolutely the best place I could have gone to.'

Balliol undergraduate, BA Modern Languages (FRE and ITA)

'Work hard to get here, it's worth it!'

Balliol undergraduate, MEng Engineering Science

'Ethos is extremely healthy: aspiration is promoted, achievement is praised, and support is in place. It also happens to be filled with wonderfully interesting people, in my experience.'

Balliol undergraduate, BA Modern Languages

'Cost of living and studying here isn't as bad as it's generally thought to be. Go for it!'

Balliol undergraduate, Medicine - Preclinical

'The opportunities here, both in terms of study and non-course related activities, are immense.'

Balliol undergraduate, BA History

'Don't be ashamed of where you came from - you have just as much potential as any other student here.'

Balliol undergraduate student, BA Modern Languages (FRE)
